

In December of 2012 Prof. Tuller was selected to receive the Helmholtz International Fellow Award from the Helmholtz Association of German Research Centers. This Award was established recently with the aim of strengthening cooperation with the world's best researchers.

Tuller is invited to spend time at Helmholtz Center for Materials and Energy in Berlin (Helmholtz-Zentrum Berlin für Materialien und Energie) and to serve as a mentor through the Helmholtz Management Academy.